

Faith Tarrant, Prairie

ALL-REGION GIRLS WRESTLER OF THE YEAR

TAYLOR BALKOM/The Columbian

Prairie junior Faith Tarrant, center, celebrates after winning the 4A/3A 235-pound state championship over Tahoma's Katherine Petersen.

Rest of the 2024 All-Region girls wrestling team

Ahmiya Brox, Union

The senior placed fifth at 190 pounds in the 4A-3A state tournament, reaching the semifinals; regional runner-up.

Niah Cassidy, Union

The senior ended her prep career with a 4A-3A state title at 130 pounds, losing just one match all season.

Kamaile Taisacan, Mountain View

Senior placed seventh at 115 pounds in the 4A-3A state tournament; Clark County champ; regional runner-up.

Kadence Burleson, Evergreen

The senior placed seventh at 170 pounds in the 4A-3A state tournament; Clark County champ and Pac Coast finalist.

Kiersten Lees, Washougal

Senior and 2A GSHL wrestler of the year placed third at 135 pounds in the 2A-1A state tournament; Clark County champ.

Aaliyah Young, Prairie

The senior placed fourth at 170 pounds in the 4A-3A state tournament after placing third last season.

TAYLOR BALKOM/The Columbian

Prairie junior Faith Tarrant, left, wrestles with Tahoma's Katherine Petersen during the 4A/3A 235-pound championship match Mat Classic state wrestling tournament.

TAYLOR BALKOM/The Columbian

Union senior Niah Cassidy, top, wrestles with Graham-Kapowsin's Shelby Rae Enos-Gessy during the 4A/3A 130-pound championship at the Mat Classic.