 The Columbian

Welcome to the Best of Clark County 2020!

Thank you to all who participated in this year's nominations and voting. This year 31,687 people voted for their favorites to be the Best of Clark County. In the last 13 years, this annual contest has grown considerably, now including 184 voting categories which gathered a grand total of 291,886 votes this year.

We are pleased to see such overwhelming support for Clark County businesses and organizations which helps to make a positive impact on our local economy during these difficult times.

We are excited to now reveal this year's winners and top finalists. This results section is your time to shine and celebrate your success. You are likely to see a few of your own favorites here, and also be introduced to new businesses who are eager to see you walk through their doors.

Congratulations ALL!

Thank you to all of you who voted for me this year for the #1 Mortgage Lender in Clark County! It means a lot to me to have the support of so many clients, referral partners, and Friends. This would not have been possible without having such an amazing Team that I get to work with here at Fairway Independent Mortgage Corporation.

We would be honored to help you with the purchase of your next new home.

2020 BEST OF THE WEST JOURNALISM AWARD

IMMIGRATION AND BORDER REPORTING
SECOND PLACE

JESSICA PROKOP
Assistant Metro Editor

AMANDA COWAN
Photo Editor

Congratulations to Jessica Prokop, who has won second place in the 2020 Best of the West journalism contest for her Bridging The Border/A Family Divided series. Also congratulations to Amanda Cowan, who teamed up with her on the story and provided amazing photos and a strong video.

WHAT THE JUDGES SAID: Second place goes to Jessica Prokop for "Bridging the Border: A Family Divided," a profile of a Vancouver, Washington, business owner who was deported to Mexico after Motel 6 shared his name with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents.

"A simple but elegantly told story that illuminates a broader issue," the judge wrote. "The reporter achieved a remarkable intimacy with her subjects."

Forced to LEAVE // Clinging TOGETHER

Ramon Flores, 46, from left, formerly of Hazel Dell, sits down to Thanksgiving dinner at his apartment in Tijuana, Mexico, with his daughter, Rayma, 10, wife, Enedis, 54, daughter, Kennedy, 16, and son, Raymond, 15. His family, who now lives in Chula Vista, Calif., crossed the U.S.-Mexico border shortly before midnight Wednesday so they could be together for the American holiday.

After Clark County man deported, his wife, children struggle with life near Mexico border

Photos by Amanda Cowan

Story by Jessica Prokop
Columbian staff writer

Everything changed for Ramon Flores and his family when he was deported to Mexico two years ago, after Motel 6 shared his name with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents. He had lived undocumented in the United States for about 20 years, raising seven children with his wife, Enedis, running a small Mexican goods business and paying taxes. He and his family rented a Hazel Dell townhouse. They led a middle-class life. The family sues $15,000 into legal fees to try to get him released from detention. Once he was deported, they lost their business, and his wife and children eventually lost their home. Ramon was among the estimated tens of thousands of people in Washington and Arizona whose guest registry information was provided to ICE agents, who in turn singled out guests with Latino-sounding names or Mexican identification. The practice spurred state-initiated and class-action lawsuits, and resulted in settlements totaling $22 million. That money has yet to reach Enedis Flores welcomes home her husband, Ramon, from work as she cooks Thanksgiving dinner at his apartment in Tijuana, Mexico. Ramon, who works as a carpenter, built custom cabinets and painted the walls of the apartment to make it feel more like home for his family.

The family's Thanksgiving dinner features dishes from south of the border, including Cuban black beans and rice.

McCord's Vancouver Toyota COVID-19 Exposure Control

PPE - Our team is committed to ensuring the safety and well being of our community, clients, and staff, therefore, it is required that any employee that is customer-facing will wear a mask and gloves. Plexiglass partitions are located at any customer-facing area of our dealership to reduce contact.

Social Distancing - Our dealership is prepped and ready to act in accordance with Phase 1 of Resuming Vehicle Sales. We have installed plexiglass partitions at every desk in which our staff has customer-facing interactions, we have taped off areas in every department where clients would be inside the dealership to keep the 6' social distancing rules in effect, we have cleaning logs at every desk in which is used along with cleaning supplies to keep these areas appropriately sanitized for our clients and staff. We are utilizing disinfectant sprayers on every vehicle that enters and exits our dealership. We are limiting in-person contact as much as possible by utilizing our digital and virtual sales procedures as well as precise appointment setting.

Sanitation and Hygiene - Our Team encourages and we have signs posted regarding the basic etiquette of consistent washing of your hands, "handshake free zone" increased frequency of the sanitation of our dealership hot spots/touch zones by our cleaning company and our in-house staff members. All dealership employees are required to wear masks and gloves. Hand sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol is used and offered throughout the dealership for both clients and staff members. We have accessible trash and recycling bins located throughout the dealership. Cleaning supplies are readily available.

Symptom Monitoring - Our staff is required to take their temperature daily before reporting to work. We are also asking the questions of our employees-Do you have a cough, fever, shortness of breath, fatigue, muscle aches, loss of taste/smell? If any staff member is not feeling well, they are advised to stay home for 24 hours or until they are feeling better. If the staff member is exhibiting signs/symptoms of COVID-19 they are required to self-quarantine for at least 72 hours or up to 7 days in addition to communicating with their medical care provider for additional precautions. Any employee that visits or consults with medical care professionals is required to provide documentation to their supervisor before returning to work. Communication with department managers is essential in our dealerships safeguarding protocol. We encourage our employees to stay home and stay healthy when feeling sick.
