WWW.CLARKCOFAIR.COM

Welcome to the 2023 Clark County Fair! It has been a busy year preparing a first-class County Fair for all the residents and visitors to this area. When you arrive, everything will be set for you to experience Fun and Farm and this is where they Meet. The staff, Fair Board, and Volunteers have come together and again worked hard to make the Fair an extraordinary family event with the best in entertainment, food, shopping, fun and farm all in one place.

As we do every year, we have added new and additional acts to our entertainment lineup, from the top-quality concerts to the west end attractions. A primary goal in our planning process was to keep the cost of gate admission low but deliver more value. I am happy to say we were able to do that in this time of increased prices everywhere.

Fairs across the country, and agriculture in particular in Clark County, have been facing an increasing challenge to stay relevant to their goal of educating the public on the importance of agriculture in the face of fewer family farms yearly. The expectations of today's youth and families are considerably different than what they were in 1868. Striking a balance that recognizes both the mission and the need to stay current is one that the Clark County Fair has done very well. This year is no exception. We have planned a great event that combine Fun with Farm and all of that with you in mind.

I am confident that your visit will be all that you hoped for, and I encourage you to take advantage of all the educational, recreational, shopping, and dining opportunities the Fair has right at your fingertips.

Again, welcome, and thank you for attending the Clark County Fair!

John Morrison, CEO and Fair Manager

THE CLARK COUNTY FAIR VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR FOR 2022

It takes thousands of volunteers to run and maintain the Clark County Fair, and each year the Fair chooses to acknowledge the tireless work of one individual. The Clark County Fair Volunteer of the Year is Beryl Lamb McMahon for 2022! Ms. McMahon has spent the past 26 years dedicating her summers to the success of the Fair. She has been a Food Preservation Superintendent, and she oversaw the establishment of the 'Made for Charity' exhibit, where items on display for the public are then donated to local charities, and she was instrumental in establishing the Elsie Thompson Award for best garment made from recycled materials. Ms. McMahon loves to sew and make others smile, and though she is unable to spend as many hours volunteering for the Fair as she once did, her heart and love of the Fair continue – thank you, Beryl, for all you've done for the Clark County Fair, and it is why you are the Volunteer of the Year for 2022!
