

Lily Mattison, R.A. Long

ALL-REGION GIRLS BOWLER OF THE YEAR

TIM MARTINEZ/The Columbian

Lily Mattison of R.A. Long started bowling her sophomore at the invitation of a friend and went on to capture the 2A state individual title as a senior.

Rest of the 2024 All-Region girls bowling team

Addysen Case, Skyview

Case was the 4A GSHL player of the year, district champion and placed sixth at state with a 1,085 series.

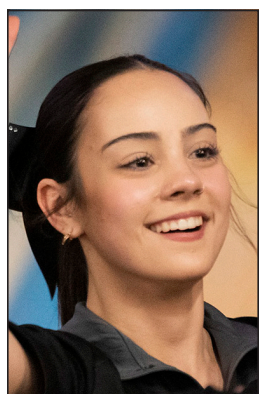

Bella Hewes, Prairie

Hewes was the 3A GSHL co-player of the year and placed fifth at the 3A state tournament with a 1,110 series.

Lilly Peschka, Fort Vancouver

Peschka was first-team all-2A Greater St. Helens League, placed sixth at state tournament with 1,020 series.

Bella Curry, Evergreen

Curry was the 3A Greater St. Helens League co-player of the year and 3A district tournament champion.

Lacey McHan, Fort Vancouver

McHan was first-team all-2A GSHL, placed eighth at district and fifth at state with a 1,023 series.

Ava Rodman, R.A. Long

Rodman was the 2A Greater St. Helens League player of the year and the 2A state runner-up with a 1,104 series.

Photo courtesy of David Rodman

Ava Rodman was the 2A Greater St. Helens League bowler of the year, leading R.A. Long to the league title.

TIM MARTINEZ/The Columbian

Members of the R.A. Long girls bowling team pose with a photo of pro wrestler John Cena, a memento picked up at a thrift store during a trip to state in 2022.