

James Gill, Battle Ground

ALL-REGION BASEBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

TAYLOR BALKOM/The Columbian

Rest of the 2024 All-Region baseball team

Noah Coakes, Columbia River

Junior was 2A GSHL pitcher of the year, leading Rapids staff in innings pitched, strikeouts, earned-run average.

Bryce Collins, Kelso

Sophomore was 3A GSHL player of the year, going 9-0 with 0.43 ERA and batting .360 for 3A GSHL champions.

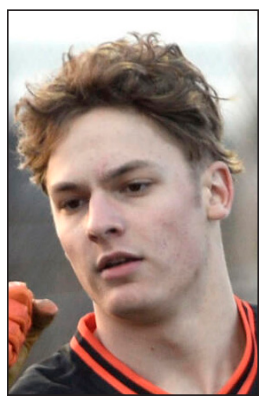

Justin Fuller, La Center

Junior Oregon State commit hit a team-high .411 with 19 RBI, two triples and provided bullpen depth.

Kolten Gesser, Seton Catholic

Sophomore was 1A Trico pitcher of the year posted a 0.67 ERA, leading the Cougars to the 1A state quarterfinals.

Jackson Hotchkiss, Battle Ground

Top prospect and senior hit .397 with three home runs, four doubles, three triples and 19 RBI; Washington commit.

Nate Merritt, Prairie

Senior and Yakima Valley College commit was pitcher/infielder who hit .471 with three HR, 11 doubles and 28 RBI.

Andrew Miller, Camas

Senior was 4A GSHL co-pitcher of the year, cleanup hitter and played shortstop for league champion Papermakers.

Dossen Morrow, Mark Morris

Senior earned 2A Greater St. Helens League player of the year honors, batting .471 with five home runs and 27 RBI.

Liam Ostrom, Ridgefield

Junior first baseman was big part of a potent lineup with six doubles, 22 RBI and .485 on-base percentage.

Chris Parkin, Columbia River

Senior, Arizona Central College commit and 3-time All-Region pick was dominant at plate and at shortstop.

Caden Spanier, Skyview

Senior and Lower Columbia commit earned 4A GSHL co-pitcher of the year honors, leading Storm to playoffs.

ABOUT ALL-REGION TEAMS

All-Region teams are selected from teams in the 4A, 3A, 2A Greater St. Helens League, 1A Trico League, as well as Kalama. Coaches were consulted before staff made final selections.

Every athlete that is selected to a Columbian All-Region team during the 2023-24 high school year are invited to attend — free of charge — The Columbian All-Region Awards Ceremony, which will be held on Wednesday, June 5 at the Kiggins Theater in downtown Vancouver. To register for the ceremony, go to The Columbian events page at Columbian.ticketbud.com